Why invest in Cyprus.....

The property market throughout

Cyprus is one of the fastest growing in the European Union and prices in some areas are increasing by an annual average of 20%.

A comparatively low tax rate, including a Double Tax Treaty with southern Cyprus and the UK are attractions for investors.

Capital Gains Tax of only 20% and Corporation Tax for Cypriot limited companies (through which you can own your property) stand at only 10%.

Cyprus enjoys a high standard of living, with good facilities, including top- class golf courses.

Cyprus has seen a sharp increase in the number of golf properties available, while golf property prices fetch up to 40% more.

A British-based banking system in southern Cyprus, makes choosing mortgages and managing your money similar to “back home”.

Tourism is predicted to grow by 4.6% over the next 10 years, contributing some 13.9% to the country’s GDP by 2014. This is good news to property investors looking for a ready market.

A low cost of living often makes for an improved quality of life.
